You are hereby notified that the State Veterinarian has imposed a Quarantine pursuant to Food and Agricultural Code, Section 9562 on the following population of animals and animal products:

Description of Population of Animals and Animal Products: Poultry species (including chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese, partridges, pheasants, quail, guinea fowl, peafowl (peacocks), doves, pigeons, grouse, swans, and ratites), poultry products including eggs, manure/fertilizer, and used equipment or other items that could be contaminated due to exposure to poultry or poultry manure.

Present Location: In those areas of San Bernardino and Riverside Counties as described above.

Reason for Quarantine: This Quarantine is imposed because the population of animals and animal products described above may be infected with virulent Newcastle disease virus (VND) or may have been exposed to VND and can transmit an illness that could kill or seriously damage other birds, or may be at risk for such exposure.

Required Action: Pursuant to California Food and Agricultural Code Section 9562 and Title 3, California Code of Regulations, Section 1301 et seq., require the following:

- Hold the population of animals and animal products described above on the premises where it is now located.
- Segregate and Isolate the population of animals and animal products described above from other animals or products no later than: 8:00 AM on January 17, 2019.
 - The method of isolation shall be confinement to one premises in a pen, cage or other means that prevents poultry from moving off the premises.
 - No poultry or hatching eggs shall be moved onto the premises and no poultry, poultry products, used poultry equipment or other items that could spread disease due to contact with poultry or poultry manure shall be moved off the premises until this quarantine is rescinded or revised; or unless the owner has signed a compliance agreement with the California Department of Food and Agriculture (CDFA) and such movement is made using a CDFA or United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) movement permit.
 - All owners shall immediately report any clinical signs suggestive of VND (described on CDFA website at https://www.cdffa.ca.gov/ahfss/Animal_Health/newcastle_disease_info.html and any unexpected decreases in egg production or increase in mortality (above expected rate for strain and age) by phone to the sick bird hot line at (866) 922-2473 or California State Veterinarian at (916) 900-5000.
- Euthanize and Dispose of the population of poultry that cannot be isolated as described above. Due to the high risk of exposure to VND in the above designated disease control areas, CDFA or USDA will assist with euthanasia if poultry are free roaming and not isolated as described by 8:00 PM on January 18, 2019.

The California State Veterinarian may modify the action(s) required in this Notice. Failure to comply with this Notice of Required Action is a violation of Title 3, California Code of Regulations, Section 1301.8 and will result in the Department of Food and Agriculture pursuing appropriate remedies, including but not limited to law enforcement involvement, and may interfere with your receiving indemnity payments to which you might be entitled.
